Under Indictment Ask Delay

Representative Nye's Trial Set for To-Morrow

Probability is That Hearing of Preliminary Motions Will Work a Continuance.

LAWYERS PLEAD WITH JUDGE

New Witnesses Appear Before Grand Jury and Belief Grows That Graft Inquiry Is Extending Its Scope Beyond All Previous Expectations. Three Indictments Predicted in Next Partial Report—Attorney General Hogan Reappears on Scene.

Columbus, O., May 16.—New lines of inquiry in the legislative bribery scandal were indicated by the appearance of new faces before the Franklin county grand jury probers. F. Weiss, secretary-treasurer of Stark-Tuscarawas breweries at Canton, was one of the new witnesses who testified. L. M. Cowen and J. C. Reader, Cleveland loan men; Edward Under, Canton saloonist and W. R. Fildsworth, Canton newspaper man, were other witnesses.

Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan was back in the grand jury room. During the last week Mr. Hogan's first assistant, has been aiding the prosecutor in the probe. There is said to be no likelihood of a report of the grand jury before tomorrow, when the case against Representative Nye is assigned for trial before Judge Kinkead. It is said three more legislators will be indicted in this report.

Attorneys Belcher & Connor, who represent the indicted legislators, set up informally with Judge Kinkead in criminal court the matter of the assignment of Representative Nye's trial. They told the court that they would want at least 10 days to prepare their defense.

Judge Kinkead told them he would consider their request tomorrow morning, when Nye's case is assigned for trial.

Witnesses for the Nye trial have been summoned by the prosecutor as Nye's attorneys, who are engaged in the trial of a murder case in criminal court which will not be completed before tomorrow, have not named any witnesses, either.

Attorneys for the indicted men are ready to make confessions. If there are any confessions, it is said, they will come from men yet to be indicted, who may be given an immunity bath.

Houses Disagree No Utilities Bill

There Will Be No Utilities Bill at Present Session.

Columbus, O., May 16.—What is forecast the probable defeat of a public utility bill at this session was the action of the senate in

Coronation Pomp In the Making; "Building" a Robe For the King

The accompanying picture shows the "pinning" of the ermine for the train of one of King George's coronation robes, an operation that calls for the use of over 15,000 pins. For the train 500 skins and 650 tails were used. The order to make the coronation robes for the king and queen was given to Wilkinson & Son, who enlisted the services of various firms, specialists in their own branches. Behind the table on which the "pinning" is being done may be seen the cape of the robe. The king will wear three robes during the coronation—the royal crimson robe of state, which is worn until just before the anointing; the imperial mantle of cloth of gold and the royal robe of purple velvet, in which his majesty leaves the abbey.

making the Yount telephone merger bill a special order for tomorrow. This measure has lain dormant for weeks, pending disposition of the Winters public utilities bill, which, among many other things, provides for consolidation of telephone companies. The house and senate are at loggerheads over the utilities bill, and predictions are made that it will fail of passage, although both branches have passed such a utilities measure.

Chairman Goodbread of the house finance committee reported the general appropriation bill for 1912. The general bill for 1911 has passed the house, but not the senate. The 1912 bill provides for appropriations of $8,415,000, which does not include $250,000 expected to be allowed for the constitutional convention or $100,000 expected for the women's reformatory.

One Per Cent May Cause Digging

Columbus, O., May 16.—It now appears that mistakes were made when the 1 per cent tax rate measure was passed by the general assembly. They are charged to the senate committee on taxation. From figures which were prepared by State Auditor E. M. Fullington it seems the state levies for educational purposes were pared too closely. As a result, it seems probable, if the measure becomes a law, that the state will be compelled to go down into its general revenue pocket for more than $548,600.

Murder Theory Advanced. Manchester, O., May 16.—John Hall of Virginia, 27, who married Carrie Middle of Manchester last Thanksgiving, was found dead near a railway camp on the C. & O., opposite this place. The camp crew suspects murder and an inquest will be held.

CONTEMPT CHARGE IS INVALID

Case Growing Out of Fight Between American Federation and Bucks Stove and Range Company Settled by Highest Tribunal in Land. Points Out That Only Recourse Against Boycott Is Civil Suit For Damages—Decision Is Unanimous.

Washington, May 16.—A decision reversing the decision of the District of Columbia court of appeals that confirmed the decision of the district court holding Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison guilty of contempt of court in violating the injunction against the boycott of the American Federation of Labor in the Bucks Stove and Range company case, was handed down by the supreme court of the United States. As a result of the decision Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, president, vice president and secretary respectively of the federation, will not have to serve jail sentences for contempt.

The tribunal held that when Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison disobeyed the mandate of the District of Columbia supreme court and continued the

Ten Are Hurt In Riot

Grand Rapids Firemen Quell Disturbance With Water Streams.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 16.—Ten persons, including firemen, policemen, newspaper men and strikers, were injured when serious rioting, in which blood was shed, broke out in the vicinity of the Widdicomb furniture factory. Several rioters were charged insolent by the police.

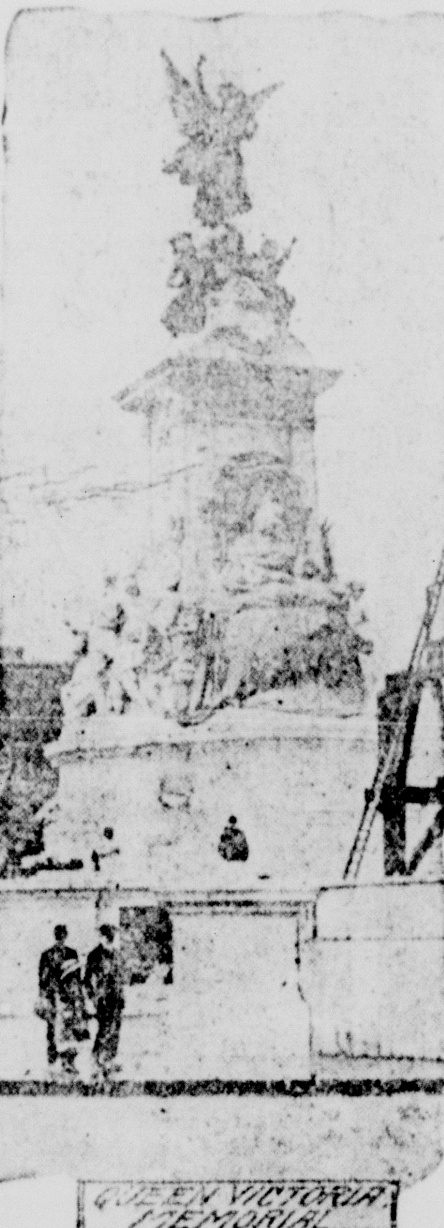

The battling between the rioters and the police continued until the fire department was called out. When darkness set in the rioters became braver and turned their attack on the engineers and the men at the nozzles. Threats of burning the factory caused Superintendent Carr to call out every available policeman, while three more fire companies succeeded in dispersing the crowd.

On Trail of Barbers. Portsmouth, O., May 16.—Having "cleaned up" on numerous voting bloodletters in this section of the state, Judge A. Z. Blair has started on a new probe. Before dismissing the vote-probing grand jury Judge Blair told them that he would call them again to probe the recent raise in rates by the barbers' union of from 10 to 15 cents for a shave and 35 cents for a hair cut.

London Erects Lasting Tribute to Queen Victoria.

Victoria Monument Unveiled Dedicated

Queen Victoria's Statue Said to Be Striking Resemblance.

London, May 16.—The unveiling of the memorial to Queen Victoria, which took place today, was one of the most important events of the coronation season. The emperor and empress of Germany were present and many other dignitaries also took part in the ceremonies.

The memorial stands in front of Buckingham palace and has been in course of erection for eight years. A statue of the late Queen Victoria is shown seated, and members of the royal families declare it to be an excellent likeness.

Loses Long Fight In Supreme Court.

ORDERED TO DISSOLVE

is Declared to Be Monopoly In Restraint of Trade.

TRUSTS TO BE CLASSIFIED

Government Pleased With Decision, Which Gives Corporation Six Months to Conform to Law. Justice Harlan Objects to Form of Chief Justice White's Opinion—Business of Country Will Experience Little Shock.

Washington, May 16.—Its interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law, long awaited by the business world, was handed down by the United States supreme court. In the first of its big decisions in the anti-trust cases the court holds that the Standard Oil company is a conspiracy in restraint of trade and a monopoly in contravention of the Sherman anti-trust law. Thus, after a fight of many years in which every obstacle known to the legal profession has been interposed, the federal government has finally succeeded in its effort to compel this giant corporation to cast off its holding company and again to separate itself into its 33 constituent parts. To accomplish this gigantic undertaking, the court sets a period of six months. This is an extension of five months over the time allotted in the dissolution decree of the lower court.

Decision Eagerly Awaited. The decision of the court in regard to the general interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law was awaited with greater anxiety by the business world than the finding of fact in the Standard Oil case. The court holds that it is necessary to distinguish between "reasonable" and "unreasonable" restraint of trade as covered by the Sherman anti-trust law.

The effect of the decision, as viewed by distinguished lawyers, is to insert the word "unreasonable" into the general prohibition in the Sherman anti-trust law against combinations in restraint of trade. The supreme court has thus eliminated the uncertainty with which all business combinations regarded the Sherman anti-trust law, and in the future it will be up to the government to draw the line between good and bad trusts. The anti-trust law as construed by the court does not apply to all combinations, contracts or acts in restraint of trade, but only to those which are shown to be unreasonable and in which the intent to form an unlawful conspiracy or monopoly can be proved or inferred. The decision of the court and its general effect was regarded in Washington as distinctly reassuring to business.

White Reads Decision. The decision of the court was read by Chief Justice Edward Douglass

White. It was unanimous, with the exception of Associate Justice Harlan's dissent. Justice Harlan's words were marked by biting sarcasm. He contended that the court had not gone far enough and he objected particularly to the words of the chief justice in construing the purpose of the anti-trust act. He declared that the court had rendered an opinion that reversed an unbroken line of decisions for 15 years past. He criticized the corporation lawyers who, failing to get an amendment to laws through congress, came to the United States courts for relief. He added, with manifest sarcasm, that it was becoming fashionable to amend the constitution and the federal statutes by judicial construction.

It was the interpretation of the Sherman law so as to apply only to unreasonable combinations to which Associate Justice Harlan objected so vigorously.

No Remedy Suggested.

The decisions of the court fail to point out any way in which the Standard Oil company may dissolve and reorganize. "We construe the decree," said the court, "not as depriving the stockholders or the corporations, after the dissolution of this combination, of the power to make normal and lawful contracts or agreements, but as restraining them from, by any device whatever, re-engaging directly or indirectly in the illegal combination which the decree dissolved."

HOW SUIT STARTED

Has Been Dragging Through Courts Since 1906.

New York, May 16. — Representatives of the Standard Oil company in this city refused to comment in any way on the decision handed down by the supreme court. The statement made at the Standard Oil building at 26 Broadway was that nobody connected with the company would have anything to say regarding the decision until they had had time to read it in its entirety.

On March 24 last, at a time when the business community was awaiting the decision, the company inserted the following advertisement in many newspapers under the heading, "A Denial." "Persistent reiteration in various publications that the Standard Oil company has prepared plans for reorganizing in anticipation of the decision of the United States supreme court, renders it necessary to state officially and emphatically that there is absolutely no truth in such reports. No such plans have been made; no preparations undertaken, and all statements to the contrary are untrue and misleading."

Not the First Time.

Once, before the institution of the present suit, the Standard Oil company was dissolved by the courts and forced to reorganize. This was in 1892, when the company was an Ohio corporation. In March, 1892, the supreme court of Ohio decided that the making and operation of the trust agreement by which all the stocks of the companies making up the holding company were conveyed to nine trustees was beyond the corporate powers of the Standard Oil Company of Ohio and enjoined that corporation from continuing business as a monopoly. On March 21, 1892, these trustees, as a result of that decision, met and terminated their trust agreement and resolved to distribute to the owners of the trust certificates the stocks of the different companies which they had held. As a result of this reorganization the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, against which the present suit was aimed, was formed.

A company by that name had been one of the 20 subsidiary companies whose stock the trustees had held. Its capital stock in 1892 was increased from $10,000,000 to $100,000,000 and its charter amended so as to empower it to do all kinds of mining, manufacturing, trading and transportation business, to acquire, hold, vote, sell and assign shares of capital stock and exercise all the powers of parts of the world. The stock of the other companies returned to their original holders by the trustees was then exchanged for the stock of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

The present suit against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey was filed by the government on Nov. 15, 1906, by Attorney General Moody, under the direction of President Roosevelt. The firm the suit took was a petition in equity against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and its 70 constituent companies. It was filed in the United States circuit court at St. Louis. The filing of the suit came six months after Commissioner of Corporations Garfield had made a report on the company to the president declaring it to be a monopoly. This report was made in response to a resolution in congress.

The case was argued before the St. Louis court, the arguments beginning on April 5, 1909, and continuing for a week. On Nov. 20, 1909, Judges Sanborn, Van Devanter, Hook and Adams of the federal circuit court of appeals handed down their decision in St. Louis, in which they held that the company was in restraint of trade and stifled competition in violation of sections 1 and 2 of the anti-trust law. It not only ordered the return of the securities to the different subsidiary companies and their separate stockholders, but granted the government's application for an injunction restraining the parent company from voting any stock or paying any dividends on the stocks of subsidiaries. This decision was unanimous, the opinion being written by Judge Walter Sanborn. There was a concurring opinion by Judge Cook. Standard Oil stock on the receipt of news of this decision fell 10 points, reaching 690.

Steps were immediately taken by the lawyers for the company to take the case to the supreme court, and on March 13, 1910, arguments on the appeal began before that tribunal in Washington.

Assets Estimated at $600,000,000. It had been estimated that the assets of the Standard Oil company, which the highest court has now ordered to be dissolved, amount to $600,000,000 in plants and properties. Since the company took over the stocks of the various subsidiaries it has never issued annual reports and its earnings have never been made public except when brought out in court proceedings. For the last seven years it has paid dividends of $40 a share. In 1900 and 1901 it paid $43 a share. Its lowest dividend was 36 per cent in 1904. These dividends were paid on an outstanding capitalization of $98,338,000.

While the capitalization of some of the subsidiaries has been increased, no change has been made in the holding company's stock, though about the time of the beginning of the government suit it was reported that such a plan was in contemplation. Serious consideration of such an increase, however, was put over until the result of the suit was known. In 1909 the stock got down to $635 a share, and later, in 1910, to $585. Its low record for this year was $617. The high-water mark for Standard Oil stock was touched in 1901, when it sold for $843.

VICTORY IS COMPLETE

Frank B. Kellogg Declares Verdict Suits Government.

Washington, May 16.—Frank B. Kellogg, the special counsel for the department of justice in the prosecution of the suit against the Standard Oil company, issued the following statement:

"The dissolution of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the trust, is inevitable now. The government won a complete victory. Every material issue for which we contended was decided in our favor. The decision was unanimous. Justice Harlan dissents only as to the language of the opinion."

Standard Pays Dividends.

New York, May 16.—The Standard Oil company declared the regular quarterly dividend of $9 per share due at this time of year. The declaration calls for a disbursement of $9,000,000 to the stockholders.

Damage Suit Against Commissioners

Monday afternoon the case of John Haggard against the County Commissioners and contractors Ellis and Limes, for $300 damages for injuries sustained by being upset in a rig one night several months ago when the rig struck a pile of gravel after nightfall, was heard before Justice Koonitz, who will render his decision later.

Haggard was driving along the road and in the darkness ran into a pile of gravel which had been placed along the road for the purpose of building a sewer, and claims that he was badly injured by the buggy overturning, fracturing his ribs, etc.

The evidence showed that seven loads of gravel had been dumped at the roadside and in the road, obstructing fully one-third of the road. So far as known, no danger signal was placed on the gravel.

Much interest centers on the case because of apparent carelessness upon the part of many persons who make road repairs, and who fail to place the proper warning lights where danger exists.

Carson West Case Continued Again

Those interested in the Carson West case were present to hear the Mayor's decision whether or not the demurrer to the evidence would be sustained or overruled. Mayor Allen had forgotten the appointment, thinking it was to come up in the afternoon, and was late. His decision was postponed until the stenographer could submit a copy of the testimony, when the matter will be acted upon.

MAYOR THREATENS FLYNN WITH MANDAMUS SUIT BEFORE NOTICES ARE SIGNED

In order to prevent the tying up of the alley paving project, a $10,000 to $12,000 improvement, Mayor Allen this afternoon announced his intention of proceeding at once with a mandamus suit against Clerk of Council J. J. Flynn, whom Mayor Allen alleges, has refused to sign the notices which must be served on all property owners whose property abuts on the alleys to be improved unless he at once performed his duty.

The notices were all prepared and ready for Clerk Flynn Saturday, but Mr. Flynn could not be located at his office during frequent visits by the Mayor to that place during the day.

Monday all visits to Mr. Flynn's office by the Mayor, were fruitless, and late Monday evening the notices were handed to Mr. Flynn who allowed the assistant clerk, Bradfute, to take charge of them and this morning Mr. Bradfute commenced signing the notices preparatory to delivering same to the property owners.

Solicitor Rankin insisted that the notices must be signed by Clerk

WASHINGTON'S CLEAN-UP DAY WILL BE OBSERVED TOMORROW AND EVERYONE SHOULD GET BUSY

Tomorrow, Wednesday, is Washington's First Annual Clean-up Day. Have you prepared to do your part in the general scouring mapped out for the city? If not, get busy.

The citizens of Washington have taken deep interest in the proposed clean-up, and scores of them have not waited for Wednesday to do the work, but when they received the assurance of a clean-up for the city, they commenced at once, and every available wagon in the city has been busy hauling refuse and dirt in general to the city dumps, and many properties have suddenly become as clean as a pin.

But tomorrow will be the big day. The day when everyone is expected to assist everybody else in eliminating the accumulated refuse from the city limits by cleaning up the residence and business district. Every citizen is expected and urged to clean up his or her own properties, and if every one does his part, the city will not undergo a half-way cleaning, but a thorough cleaning—the best she has ever had, and the general health will improve accordingly.

Make war on all refuse, or disease breeding accumulations, unsightly objects; straighten up! Clean up! See what surprising results will come from a little much needed labor. Take care of that back yard, the front yard; the sidewalk, gutter, and everything of an objectionable character which surrounds your premises, and you will be pleased with the result.

For information call the Board of Health headquarters—the Mayor's office—either phone, and everything possible will be done to promote the movement. If you want a wagon to remove the refuse, call the Mayor's office, and if possible one will be cured. All persons who have wagons and wagons at their disposal are requested to report at the Mayor's office, and work will be assigned to them.

Dozens of wagons should be busy throughout the day. The city dumps are open to everyone tomorrow, and all persons are urged to dispose of the refuse as quickly as possible after it is once collected.

Get behind the movement a boost. It means better health, consequently a better place to live. Don't let the sun go down tomorrow upon undisturbed refuse of what ever character. Clean up your property, and urge your neighbors to do the "clean up wagon." Commence early.

Mary Draper Wants Child Restored

Attorneys McGrew and Laybourne, of Springfield, representing Mary Draper, who was deprived of the custody of a minor child by a decision handed down by Probate Judge Patton, following the hearing of a suit brought by Eritte Draper, the child's father, for recovery of the child, Tuesday morning carried the case to the Common Pleas Court and in the petition asks that the petition brought by Eritte Draper be dismissed.

The petition alleges that since

Mrs. Draper was awarded a divorce in 1909, at which time Eritte Draper paid her $100, that he has not paid her to help support the child since, other than $3 paid at the order of Juvenile Court Judge Geiger, of Springfield, on April 22, 1911, and that a case is now pending against Draper in the Springfield courts for non-support of his minor child.

When the case was heard here last week, the child, which had been given into the custody of the mother, was given into the keeping of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Draper, of Springfield. Mrs. Draper, mother of the child, has been having a hard row to hoe to support herself and child, and has been earning only about $3 per week.

Imperial Degree Staff Will Go to Chillicothe

The rapidly growing famous Imperial Degree Staff of Temple Lodge I. O. O. F., of this city, will go to Chillicothe Thursday night to confer work upon a class of candidates in that city. The staff goes at the invitation of the Chillicothe Odd Fellows, and fully fifty members from this city will be in the party.

The trip will be made in automobiles, leaving here at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and stopping at Maple Grove Hotel for supper. It is said that some 50 members of Chillicothe Lodge will meet the boys at Maple Grove and take supper there, after which all will proceed to Chillicothe for the evening's work.

Other lodges will be represented and a big time is anticipated. Washington is becoming noted for her secret society enthusiasts, and has more than one excellent degree staff among the lodges, but at the present time the Imperial Staff holds the lead.

Boys', size 1-5, $2.50
Big Boys' and Men's, size 6-10, $3.00

Is made especially for the growing foot. It's the most sensible—the most attractive—the most comfortable shoe ever made for rough and tumble wear.

The tops are as soft as a glove—they're made from Elk Skin Leather. Soles are made from high grade Elk Sole Leather and heels are solid Elk Leather. Our secret tanning process makes the soles wear two to three times as long as common soles. And they're put on so good they can't pull off.

"Boy Scouts" are made without linings—they're the coolest and most healthful shoes on the market.

Tell your pa and your ma about them. Tell your pa he can get a pair for himself, too. Tell him they'll outwear two to three pairs of ordinary shoes. Have him bring you up to look at them—costs nothing to see them.

Royal Arch Masons Attend Banquet in London

A large delegation of Royal Arch Masons from this city, drove over in autos to London Monday night to attend the inspection and banquet given by the London chapter.

The occasion was one of notable interest in London Masonry.

Work was put on by two teams. In the afternoon the Washington C. H. team composed of High Priest George Swope, Elmer Peelle, Les Des Martin, D. L. Thompson, A. T. Baldwin, Elmer Kleevers, C. E. McNutt, Moses Gross, did the work and in the evening the London team. There were six candidates.

The ladies of the M. E. church served a nelegant banquet, in four courses in the spacious downstairs dining room of their church. The tables were beautifully decorated and bouilloniers of lilies of the valley presented to each Mason.

The evening was one of mutual benefit and enjoyment, the local chapter appreciating the royal entertainment given to them.

The chapter Masons attending from here included:

George B. Swope, Elmer S. Peelle, Lee DesMartins, D. L. Thompson, A. T. Baldwin, W. H. Dahl, Elmer Kleevers, M. Gross, C. E. McNutt, C. E. Lloyd, Rev. T. W. Locke, C. H. Murray, Wilson Bachart, W. H. ## Modern Woodmen Plan Big Time

The Mt. Sterling camp of Modern Woodmen of America has planned the biggest time in its history for tomorrow night, when a class of 40 candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the ranks.

The camp has made a wonderful growth during the past year, and has already more than doubled its membership in that time. A banquet will follow the work tomorrow night, and the leading role on the bill of fare will be roast chicken.

The work will be conferred by a uniformed team from Columbus, and Woodmen from all over this part of the state will be in attendance. A large street parade will be held early in the evening.

CLEAN UP DAY.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, May 17th, is Clean-up Day in Washington. A day appointed by the unanimous will of the people of this little city when every one within the gates will, collectively and individually, get busy and get as near a spotless town as possible.

As they say it in the advertising matter—"Don't forget the place and the date"—Right here tomorrow.

The main point which should be borne in mind and which seems now to be well understood is that this clean-up day is primarily for the benefit of the individual who cleans up. Every one of our citizens should, and most every one does, realize that this work is for himself and for his children.

So far there has been exhibited a commendable disposition to act, to move and to accomplish good along the clean-up line without standing back waiting for others to do or complaining about what others have failed to do.

If every citizen would pause long enough tonight to realize that if he cleans up his premises that's all he need do and when his work is done he will find that every other man in the city has done likewise.

Clean-up days have become a success the nation over and are regarded as the most advanced move to better conditions of humanity yet suggested.

Washington will not be found wanting in tomorrow's initial clean-up day.

WOMAN, LOVELY WOMAN.

"Woman is a less highly developed type of being than man. She is nearer nature. She is a lower type of organism. She is biologically more of a barbarian."

Startling statement isn't it? Yet it is no more startling than the source from which it sprang.

That is the exact language of Prof. Dudley Sargent, of Harvard College, an institution of learning and culture for which we have frequently expressed our appreciation.

Now listen to the reply of some of the women of New York:

"Women have a greater love for beauty than men have. They adorn themselves and everything with which they come in contact. If it were not for women, men would cease to wear clothes, to shave or to make any pretensions to civilization. In other words, they would be barbarians, not only 'biologically.'"

We join forces with the women of New York and with the good women every where, and incline strongly to the opinion that a few more breaks of that sort will be cause for a change in Harvard's faculty or an order to muzzle the professors too much given to theorizing. A good pure woman is the most priceless treasure of creation and by example has done more to uplift man than any other one thing.

The professor should let his pipe go out.

MADERO PROVES UNEQUAL.

Admirers of Diaz, both in and out of Mexico, have stoutly maintained for years, whenever objection to the Diaz rule was urged, that he was the only man who could succeed in preserving any form of government at all in the vast domain of undeveloped country south of the Rio Grande.

Of course that is putting it too strong. History has proven to us conclusively that no matter how valuable a man may be to his country or to science when he was removed by death or political upheaval, there has always arisen another man competent to take his place, and this must be true and undoubtedly is true with respect to Diaz and the Mexican people.

But from the partially-suppressed rebellion which now exists in the ranks of the successful insurgents now occupying Juarez, Francisco Madero is not that man.

Just after pronounced success began to crown the battles of the insurgents the soldiers under the leadership of General Orozco, rebel because they have been poorly paid and march in force to the headquarters of the provisional president and demand the impossible. Madero unable to accede to the demands of Orozco for money made a compromise by dismissing his cabinet.

The rebellion checked? Yes, but the price was the absolute humbling of the civil government to the military, a performance which has forever ruined the influence of Madero as the powerful character in the new government of Mexico should the rebels succeed in overthrowing the Diaz government.

Success now to the rebel arms means a long reign of anarchy and disorder in Mexico before the "right man" is developed and what that means to the people of other nations who have property interests in Mexico, can be understood by all who know the temper of the aroused and uncontrolled Mexican populace.

The break between Madero and his general on last Sunday has brought to light a condition in Mexico, which may well cause people of this nation to ponder seriously over the outcome. The situation is worse now than ever before.

POETRY

I WANT TO GO.

I want to go and fish for fish
Where pleasant waters swish and swish;
I want to sit out on a log
And hark the croaking of the frog;
I want to go and get away
From routine things of every day
And where the pleasant meadows roll
Just hug all Nature to my soul!

I want to go where flowers peep
And birds their thrilling concert keep;

I want to go where mountains tower
Oershadowing many fragrant bower;

I want to climb some mighty peak
Where edelweiss their shelters seek,
O'erlooking vale and mead and sea
I want to say: "It's all for Me!"

What man would languish in the mart
When welcome cries from Nature's heart?

What man would grovel in the ditch
When in the woods all men are rich?
I want to go, I want to go Where mead and waters roll and flow!

For man is proud, and Man is great,
And all outdoors is his estate!

CELEBRITIES

Charles H. Hyde, Former
Chamberlain of New York.

Charles H. Hyde, former chamberlain of New York city, who was recently indicted on the charge of bribery and with accepting a gratuity as a public officer, had the handling of approximately $500,000,000 during his term. Mr. Hyde has been in the public eye since last December, when he evaded service to testify before a legislative investigating committee. He was finally located on a houseboat in Florida, but did not return to New York until the life of the committee had expired by limitation. He resigned his office as soon as the indictments were returned against him.

Mr. Hyde is a native of Nova Scotia, about forty-two years of age, and is a nephew of Mayor Gaynor by the latter's first marriage. During the mayoralty contest in New York he managed Gaynor's canvass and on the latter's election was named chamberlain of the city's finances. Previously he had been associated with the mayor in the law business. His part in the campaign was mainly to attend to the financial end of the fight. The job of city chamberlain pays $12,000 per year, but its possibilities in a financial way are tremendous. Hyde did not attract much attention in his office until the affairs of the Carnegie Trust company came under investigation. Then it was alleged that he was permitted to borrow large sums from that institution in return for making the trust company a depository for city funds.
He claims that the charges are false and that he is the victim of a conspiracy.

Trying to quiet a fretting baby is a hard task, but trying to quiet an accusing conscience is a harder one.

tral team last evening in a one-sided game. The graders' played poorly behind Gregg, who will develop into a pitcher in a few years. The graders got three safe hits off of Pine, who fanned twelve men. Gregg, Dakin, Frayne and Pine did good work for their teams.

abroad and is being talked of as having a chance for the Derby. Madden bought the colt recently from the Newcastle stable, but has refused to tell the price at which he sold, although $10,000, with a contingent sum in case the Derby is won, is the general guess.

Allan Winter Goes to Russia.

Allan Winter, the great trotting stallion, will do service in Russia this year. He has been taken to the czar's dominions by Frank Caton, who has just left this country after his third visit in eighteen years. Caton has done a lot toward building up trotting in Russia, and he likes the conditions that exist in the country. Allan Winter was purchased two years ago by Louis J. Winans for $50,000, and Caton recently secured the horse from Al Pennock, Winans' trainer.

Twirler in Good Form.

Frank Smith, the big right hand twirler of the Boston Red Sox, says he will be the team's star pitcher this year. Smith was secured with Purcell from the Chicago White Sox last year in exchange for Lord and McConnell, but he couldn't do much pitching because of a weak ankle. The big twirler is as well as ever and ready to do the bulk of the work on the slab this season.

New Foreign Wrestler Here.

Aleksander Stephanoff, a giant Bulgarian, weighing 250 pounds and standing six feet three inches in his athletic togs, is a new Richmond in the wrestling field, being decidedly anxious, according to his countryman, Pauko Kuchadnoff, to take on Zhyso or any of the mammoths now engaging the attention of the followers of the grappling game.

Pitcher Donovan Resting Up.

"Wild Bill" Donovan, former star of the Detroit Tigers pitching staff, will not be called upon to pitch by Jennings until the hot summer winds blow. Hughie figures that Donovan should win almost every game he works when he is right and will not take any chances with the old war-horse.

Plans Stadium For Yale.

That the members of the special committee on the question of a stadium at Yale have as individuals expressed strong opinions in favor of a stadium of some kind, one with movable stands being preferred, is stated on high athletic authority.

Chillicothe Office Closes Sunday

On and after Sunday, June 4th, the Chillicothe postoffice will no longer be opened on Sunday. This is the announcement just received from the postoffice department in response to a petition filed with the department, asking that the office be closed on Sundays.

Police Chief Stabbed.

Stevensville, O., May 16.—Bleeding from several serious stab wounds and unconscious. Chief of Police Ad Barnes of Follansbee was found outside a dance hall. He was called there shortly after midnight to quell a disturbance, and when he attempted to exercise his authority a dozen men jumped upon him, several of them using knives. Before he could pull his revolver he was stabbed and beaten unconscious and kicked down two flights of stairs. His condition is critical.

A BURGLAR'S AWFUL DEED

may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," wrote Mrs. M. C. Dunlap, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

A SUSTAINING LOVE.

(Contributed.)
With the arms of mother about me,
Childhood's troubles were done;
With mother's eyes upon me
Childhood's battles were won.
In manhood's fiercest strife,
In the aged days of rest,
A mother's arms and a mother's love
Served me still the best.

For the arms that are folded in sleep,
In fancy embrace me still;
And the eyes that are dull in death
Forever encourage my will—
For mother's love is eternal,
And God would have it so,
That the holiest thing in heaven
Is the holiest here below.

JOE JACKSON, NAPS HARD-HITTING OUTFIELDER

Those members of the Detroit team who went on record last winter as considering Joe Jackson only a fair hitter may have occasion to change their minds before the season is much older. Jackson is accomplishing some wonder stunts with his bat, and there does not seem to be the slightest doubt that he will be one of the contenders for batting honors in the American league this year. To date he has found but little trouble with any of the pitchers who have faced him, and incidentally he holds the long distance hitting record. Some years ago Joe was given a short trial by Connie Mack, who passed him up. How nicely Jackson would fit in on that Philadelphia outfield!

Winans Buys Adam Bede.

Louis Winans of London has bought from John E. Madden of Hamburg Place, Lexington, Ky., the colt Adam Bede, a candidate for the English Derby and now in training at Newmarket. Madden shipped the colt to England some time ago. He is by Adam-Grace Gumberts, by Sainfoin. The young ster has made a good impression

Peace In Mexico Not Far Distant

Olaz Representative Says Dove Once More Sighted.

El Paso, Tex., May 19.—"Tomorrow or the day after the matter of peace will be settled one way or the other," said Judge Carbajal, when he returned from a visit to Provisional President Madero. "The government is very well disposed to grant certain concessions," said the judge, "and unless there is direct resistance to some unnecessary things, the negotiations will be successful. Already we have agreed upon some points; others are pending. But there is no absolute disagreement, and the outlook is better than ever before. Peace conditions are in better shape than they have ever been."

Saves Time For His Wife.

They were discussing their husbands, neither of whom was distinguished for his domesticity.

"My husband amuses me," said the hostess, "by the excuses he has for being detained downtown of evenings. Sometimes I can almost hear his brain working out an excuse as he tiptoes up the stairs."

"My husband," said the caller, "is different. He is a very systematic man, you know, and some time ago he wrote out a list of various excuses and numbered them. Now, when he comes in he just calls up the stairs, 'No. 4,' or 'No. 20,' or whatever the number may be."—Judge.

SAVED CHILD FROM DEATH.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, la-

STREET SPRINKLING CLAIMS OCCUPY CENTER OF THE STAGE AT ADJOURNED COUNCIL MEETING

Other Matters Were Taken Up and Discussed, Some Disposed Of, But the Money Due the Flints Was the Main Subject Under Consideration--Unanimous Opinion Was That Muddle Was Made at the Start of the Whole Affair.

For a time Monday night it appeared that the adjourned meeting of Council was not to be, but nearly three-quarters of an hour after time for the meeting to commence, the last member who was coming, Goodwin, appeared on the scene. Smith and Shoop were absent, the latter being in a serious condition in the Columbus Hospital.

When Council finally rolled up both sleeves and commenced on the work, the Green street sewer was the first job tackled. This has been referred to the State Board of Health and action of that body is awaited. The numbering-of-houses ordinance was not taken up, and will probably die in committee.

Then the much-mooted sprinkling question came up. This pertains to the sprinkling done by Oliver Flint and Son and James Flint, and for which over $900 is still due them because the assessments have not been collected. Attorney W. B. Rogers appeared on behalf of the Flints, and cautiously felt his ground before making threats of bringing suit against the city to collect the back assessments.

It was brought out that a proposal had been made by the Flints to exempt the city from collecting the assessments if the contract entered into by the Flints was accepted by the city. Mr. Rogers contended that inasmuch as the contract had not been accepted (no record of acceptance being found) that the city was bound to collect the assessments. Various members "believed" they remembered of accepting the proposal. After threshing the matter over for a time, Rothrock advised bringing suit for collecting the back assessments. This was sanctioned by McLellan, and the fact that many persons were ready to pay the assessments if properly notified where to pay same, was mentioned.

City Solicitor Rankin held that the city was under no obligation to collect or pay the assessments whether the contract above mentioned, had been accepted by the city, or not. Rogers insisted that Council was bound, and accused that body of trying to make a retreat. He also spoke of assessments not being certified over to the County Auditor for collection, and that if they had, nearly all would have been collected. It then came to light that the assessments were placed in the hands of the County Auditor, but he refused to proceed in their collection because Section 93, of the General Code says that when no bonds are issued the City Treasurer shall make the collections as in ordinary cases. This seems to be an extraordinary ordinary case.

Rogers, the City Solicitor and others agreed a muddle of the whole affair was made at the inception.

After thoroughly discussing the problem a motion was made that notices be sent to the delinquent citizens, and five days' grace allowed in which to pay the assessments, and if the assessments are not paid at the end of that time, suit for collection will be commenced. Thus the matter stands, and those who wish to avoid notoriety will make a rush for the City Treasurer, William Dewees, who is located at Cockerill's Grocery, and will welcome all.

Next to receive attention was the matter of allowing the C. & M. V. railroad the privilege of crossing Sycamore street with a switch, to reach the Coffman Lumber yards. The last ordinance granting this permission, and allowing the switch to remain as long as the Coffman Lumber Company, or its assigns was in business, was deemed good enough, and the railroad branded a greedy, grasping corporation which seeks to acquire as much property as possible under the pretense of being imposed upon by the kind of ordinance passed. An ordinance like those used in Columbus was read for Council's benefit, and the railroads are given no certain time to maintain switches, but the switch may be torn up after sixty days' notice by passing an ordinance to that effect.

The City Engineer was instructed to draw plans for John street improvement that would meet with Council's approval. An old sewer crossing Yeoman street and Washington avenue was reported as being in an exceedingly bad condition, and the City Engineer will give it attention.

Tom Clancey, "the regular" was present to further complain about the Green street sewer, and as this is progressing as rapidly as possible, Clancey's persistency is regarded as somewhat of a joke, and it has been hinted that Green street legislation will proceed just as rapidly if unnecessary urging is left out. A mention was made of the Cherry Hill school sewer, but no action taken.

A transfer of funds was made by resolution, to pay for a $25 job on the Dayton avenue sewer repair. A resolution was also passed calling for the transfer of $120 from the street repair fund, to the street cleaning fund.

Adjournment was taken until next Monday night.

Five more weeks and 126 Ohio Wesleyan students at Delaware will receive diplomas and start their battles with the "cold and cruel world." Of this number 107 will get degrees, and 19 are scheduled to graduate from the School of Music.

Of the 107 who will receive degrees 54 are women and 53 men. Sixty-two receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts, 24 will be able to tack a B. L. to their name and 21 will receive diplomas in the scientific course. Last year 55 men and 63 women received degrees, showing a decrease of 11.

"Dad's Day" Is June 18

Following the innovation of "Mothers' Day" on May 14th, "Fathers' Day" has been set on June 18th, and all persons who wish to pay tribute to the little-mentioned head of the house, can do so by wearing a red rose if father is living, or a white rose if he is dead.

Mrs. John B. Dodd, of Spokane, Wash., originator of "Fathers' Day" is making arrangements through clubs in various parts of the United States for a national celebration on Sunday, June 18.

Mrs. Dodd succeeded in interesting several thousand men, women and children in the country in observing the day last year, which some of the local ministers preached special sermons, extolling the worth and virtues of "the old man." Since then the Spokane woman has received sheaves of letters from prominent men and women in various parts of the country, including governors of 38 states and executive officials at Washington, D. C., commending the plan and urging her to continue the campaign with a view to making the celebration a national event. So far more than 100 cities have decided to join in the celebration, and Mrs. Dodd expects there will be more than 3000 in line this year.

Direct News From the Border

Miss Bell DeWitt has received a copy of the El Paso (Texas) Herald of Wednesday evening, May the 10th, with an extra issue just after the terrible battle of Juarez.

Startling headlines in red and black ink, tell the story of blood drenched streets and hundreds killed and wounded before the Federal soldiers surrendered, and the white flag was hoisted over the Barracks.

The Federals in surrendering stripped off their uniforms to show that they had renounced their allegiance to the Federal government, and Gen. Navarro and his officers were the only prisoners wearing uniforms. Gen. Navarro is said to look tired and much older, as if the strain of the lost battle of Juarez had added to his already ripe age. His fate is not known, but he did not seem worried; said what he wanted was sleep and rest.

The El Paso Herald says that Mexico has abandoned all border towns of the north and there was not a Mexican custom house in operation on the border between Eagle Pass, Texas and Nogales, Arizona. Along this entire border line it is impossible to export from the United States and Mexico.

The abandonment may be a part of the federal government's program to comply with its agreement with the United States not to permit any more fighting on the border.

DO GHOSTS HAUNT SWAMPS?

No. Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only. 50c at Blackmer & Tanquary.

FRIENDLY INJUNCTION SUIT COCKERILL VS. CRAIGS AND DAHL NOW ON TRIAL IN EARNEST

The trial of the injunction suit of S. S. Cockerill against D. S. Craig, H. B. Dahl and H. B. Dahl has been on in the Common Pleas Court before Judge Clarence Curtin on Monday and Tuesday. The plaintiff concluded the introduction of his evidence at the afternoon session Tuesday.

The suit is brought to restrain the defendants from tearing out the old stairway in the Yeoman black on Court street, Cockerill claiming that he and the other owners and their respective grantors in the chain of title all bought with the knowledge of the fact that this stairway was to be used in connection with the hallway above for the benefit of the room now owned by Mr. Cockerill.

The law suit at first was conducted with the most friendly feeling, but the conflict of the actual trial has brought on strained relations which threaten to involve a dispute as to many essential facts, making an issue of fact fully as perplexing as the questions of law.

The defendants claim that while Mr. Cockerill has used the stairway for a number of years he has done so as a tenant of theirs and has paid rent to them for the privilege and that they have a right to abandon it when they please.

Judge Newby heard the case on demurrer to the petition held the petition good and awarded a temporary injunction.

An answer was then filed by the defendants and the case is now being finally heard on its merits of both fact and law.

Mr. Humphrey Jones represents the plaintiff and Mr. John Logan and Hon. J. D. Post represent the defendants.

FOR THE CHILDREN

The Sleepy Donkey.

A man near Meadville, Pa., has an innocent looking, sleepy little donkey, which he keeps in a yard back of his house. For some time every dog that passed made it a point to stop and bark at the long eared animal. Finally the man became provoked, and one day when two big dogs growled and tried their best to jump the fence the man quietly opened the gate and let them in. If they had been Siberian bloodhounds the barking brutes could not have rushed with more ferocity upon the seemingly stupid little animal with long shaggy hair and ears. Prancing around him on both sides and watching their chance to grab him by the throat both together, the dogs, like a brace of ravenous wolves, encircled the donkey. Squinting lazily out of his off eye, the donkey appeared most oblivious to his danger. The dogs grew fiercer. As both were about to catch his throat in their teeth the donkey with the speed of a lightning flash lowered his head and dashed toward the nearest dog as if to butt him. Round and round the donkey whirled as if on a pivot. Then his heels flew out, and the next instant fifty pounds of dog went spinning through the air. The fate of dog No. 1 was only an aggravation to No. 2. He snapped and growled more furiously at the donkey than before. In two minutes more, however, the second savage assailant was vomiting over the turf in somersaults, and the donkey had winked his eyes again and retired on his haunches.

"Patch" among hundreds of thousands of other baby seals, notwithstanding that the ice may have wheeled or drifted fifty or sixty miles during the day from wind and tide and not withstanding that the patch may extend thirty or forty miles from one end to the other. Whether this instinct is of the class that enables the bird, without any mark or chart, in a forest with millions of trees alike to find its way back with ease and precision to its nest I do not know, but it is one of those wonders in nature before which human knowledge is brought to a full stop.

"THE FLAMING ARROW."

That beautiful scenic production of the West, as it really was in the early days in the vicinity of Fort Reno when the Indians were having most frequent uprising and the United States soldiers were ever on the alert. "The Flaming Arrow" will be presented at the Empire theater on Thursday, May 18th. Although at first thought one would expect a play full of blood and thunder, it is not so, being devoid of this red coat evictions and other stereotyped features.

The plot is consistent and naturally developed; comedy and pathos are intermingled in a pleasing manner, and each act has a surprising and effective climax.

The electrical and scenic effects are marvelous, in fact noncomparable.

TO THE MODERN QUACK.

[After reading the early history of medicine.]
Ye makers of fortunes gigantic,
Cunning vendors of potions and pills,
Who now give us nothing but romance,
Except your advertisement bills,
Consider the wondrous concoctions
Put up in the bottle or box
By doctors of fortune and waste,
Just pull up your socks.
"Digestion," they'd ask, "misbehaving?"
Or "biliousness on both of your heels?"
Tut, tut! Take an ivory shaving
Twice daily an hour before meals.
Such sorts of medicinal dainties,
Backed up by a condemned man,
They'd fust up in a flash as certain of jolly
Well earning the spleen.
They'd (almost) put up in a fagon
And afterward offer for sale
Pink halves from the head of a dragon.
Fine tufts from a unicorn's tail,
And, could they have mixed with their drinks
No doubt they'd have mixed with their drinks
For troublesome tumours the wrappings
Of nannies
Or chips off the sphinx.
But you, did we ask that a pimple
Be cured with a blizzard of bars,
Would only look hopelessly simple
Or rudely ejaculate, "Hats!"
Come, give up your commonplace nostrums.
Present something quaint to our view.
Those picturesque bars could always find buyers.
So why shouldn't you? —Punch.

HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE

Closed Roasting Pan With Sliding Tray.

A combination pan that can be used either for roasting meat and potatoes or for baking bread has been invented by a Colorado man. The bottom portion is rectangular, and above it rises a slanting top like a mansard roof. A tray slides back and forth in the casing on slideways that run along the sides. The front end of this tray operates to close the lower half of the opening in the front end of the casing, and a hinged flap closes the upper half. Across the center of the pan is a flat tray with perforations that allow the draining of liquid from any thing that requires draining or keeps two articles separate. The advantage of an inclosed pan of this type is that in cooking meat, for example, all the flavor is kept in the pan instead of evaporating in steam, and the meat is done moister. Articles cooked in it require less attention than in an old style utensil too.

Baked Shad Roe.

Wash the roes of four shad often pare them. Butter a pan and dish, sprinkle over with finely chopped onion, parsley and a few herbs. Add the roes, sprinkle over them more chopped onion, parsley, salt, pepper, paprika and grate of nutmeg and a few pieces of butter. Then add half a cupful of white stock; let all cook in the oven for thirty minutes, basting often.

Drain the roes and thicken the liquid with one tablespoonful of flour mixed with one tablespoonful of butter. Pour this over the roes, add one glass of white wine, then sprinkle over fine breadcrumbs, put pieces of butter on top and bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes. Serve in the baking dish.

Mayonnaise.

To the yolks of two eggs carefully separated from the whites put a little salt and pepper and drop by drop a little vinegar or lemon juice. Stir and rub briskly with a wooden spoon; next add a dessertspoonful of salad oil, stirring and rubbing constantly. This sauce requires great care and watching, as it will often curdle in spite of everything. The best way is to prepare it in a cool place. Being a cold sauce, requiring no cooking, it is especially used for salads of salmon, lobster or chicken.

Quick Pudding.

Beat two eggs until light and add them to a scant pint of flour that has been mixed smooth with a little milk, put enough more milk to make a quart altogether into a saucepan with a pinch of salt and a teaspoonful of butter; when this boils add the flour and eggs; stir and boil five minutes more and either serve hot with thin cream, sweetened, or set away in a dish to cool and serve with a plain custard, flavored with vanilla.

Spiced Sirup.

Into a saucepan put one-half cupful of sugar and one cupful of water.

"Just Say" HORLICK'S

It Means Original and Genuine Malted Milk The Food-drink for All Ages.

More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

Let it come to a boil and then simmer slowly until thick and sirupy. Then add a little lemon juice and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of cinnamon with a pinch of cloves. Simmer a minute longer, then pour over the baked apples and stand away in a cool place. Serve with cream or plain.

Deviled Herring Roas.

Examine the roes and wash them, then dry them. Divide them in halves and roll in curry powder to which have been added a few grains of paprika. Fry the roes in hot lard or butter and serve them on hot buttered toast with a few drops of lemon juice sprinkled over them.

Homemade Fly Poison.

To destroy the pest of flies in the summer kitchen simmer together one pint of milk, a pound of raw or brown sugar and two ounces of pepper. Place saucers containing the mixture around the house. It means almost instant death to the flies, and the stuff is harmless.

Spiced Halibut.

Boil two or three pounds of halibut in salt and water about half an hour, drain, then put into a stone crock, with half a teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and allspice. Cover with vinegar and close crock. When cold it is a nice relish for supper.

Facing the Inevitable.

"Is it selfish ambition that inspires your eagerness to rush into official responsibility?" "Not at all. It is merely a generous willingness to go to the front and stand my share of the harsh criticism that patriotic effort always receives."—Washington Star.

THE PARSON'S BABY.

It was late in the evening when the Rev. MacLain, with a baby in his arms, reached his home. He ran up the steps friskily and rang the bell. "Who's there?" inquired a voice from the window above. "It's I," he replied; "open the door. I've got a baby, Martha!" "A BABY?"

"Yes, I've got a baby! But don't ask any more questions. Let us in, will you?"

The door opened and there stood her husband with a sleeping baby in his arms.

"Well, David!" she said; "What are you going to bring home next? Last week you brought a tramp, yesterday a dog, and tonight a baby!"

"Well, let us come in, will you? It is cold out here, and my boy may get chilled." "My boy," she said. So you took special pains to get a boy did you? Where did you get him? Give him to me. He is cold. I'll take him to the fire and warm him," and she unconsciously kissed the baby several times as she walked toward the stove, while her husband regarded her kindly.

"Where did you get this baby?" "On the street car," replied her husband with a twinkle in his eye. "A lady sat on the opposite seat holding him. She was pale, very pale. Several times she closed her eyes and seemed about to let the baby drop. She saw me watching her. She came to me and asked me to hold her boy. She was ill. She wanted to get some fresh air."

"I took the baby while she went out on the platform. That was at Thirtieth street. At Fifth street I grew anxious and beckoned to the conductor. He came."

"How is the sick lady?" I said. "The sick lady?" he asked; "which one do you mean?"

"I told him the circumstances and he informed me that she had gotten off at Fortieth street. So I had the baby, and here he is!"

"But, David, what shall we do with him?"

"We'll turn him over to the police tomorrow," he said, rather dryly.

"No, we won't," she answered. "He will remain here until his mother comes for him. She is not much of a mother! She'll never get him! We'll keep him, David!"

"Yes, Martha, we'll keep him. He is mine!"

"Yours? He is ours! Now you heat some water and we will give him a bath before putting him to bed."

The minister went to heat the water, and when he returned his wife said:

"David, you go upstairs and get one of those little nighties out of the upper dresser drawer, and—"

The minister put his arm around his wife's neck and kissed the tears from her eyes.

"It's just three years ago tonight since Archie died, is it not, Martha?" "Yes, dear!" and she returned his kisses.

"I thought of that as I was coming up the street," he said, as he turned to perform his errand.

The garments were brought, and, together, they bathed and dressed the little fellow. And a rosy little chap he was! They kissed him by turns, vowed he should never leave their home, and even laid some plans for his future.

"Now we must put him into the little crib," said the minister's wife. "It has been vacant for three years!"

There was a rap on the door. The minister went and opened the door, and there stood a man and a woman.

"You don't know us," said the man. "I know that woman," replied the minister. "She is the one who gave me the baby on the street car."

"Yes," said the woman, "I am the baby's mother. This is my husband. We planned it together. The times are hard. We are poor. We thought we could not raise our baby, so we decided to put him into the care of some good people. We saw you come into the car. We know you. So we decided that that was our chance. So we played the game. But when we got home we could not stand it. So we came up here. We want our baby!"

"You cannot have him! You are not fit to have a baby! We'll care for him!" and the minister started to close the door.

The woman fell forward on her knees before the minister, pleading for her child, while her husband stood over her, weeping and pleading too.

"Give me my baby! Give me my baby!" cried the woman.

"David," said the minister's wife, "she is a mother, and we must give her her child."

The child, its clothes and a big shawl were given to the parents, and they went out into the dark.

"Most parents," said the minister as he closed the door, "most parents do not know how much they love their children until they are separated from them!"

And they went upstairs and looked into their empty crib.

WOMEN CAN NOW AVOID OPERATIONS.

A great hospital operator says that two-thirds of all operations on women could be avoided by doing the right thing at the right time, which is to not let the bowels become clogged, and create toxic poisons.

Constipation frequently leads to an operation. Keep the bowels active; remove that bearing-down soreness by taking "Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a Substitute for Calomel." Their action is magical and saves thousands from the operating table.

They act positively, yet gently and pleasantly. Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, and contain no poisonous mercury or minerals.

At all drug stores—10c or 25c per package. Made by Olive Tablet Co., Portsmouth, Ohio, under the personal direction of Dr. F. M. Edwards.

Comfort In That.

"Ain't yer vaccination healed yer yet?" asked Jimmy.

"Naw," replied Tommy. "Geel! Don't it make yer feel bad?"

"Naw. The doctor told mom I musn't take a bath till it's all healed up."—Catholic Standard and Times.

With Alacrity.

"Waal, I dunno," said the farmer's wife when Dusty Rhodes applied for a meal. "Would you be willing to do a few chores?"

"Madam," said Dusty, "if you'll give me something to chew on I'll chew all day."—Harper's Weekly.

Too Quickly.

"Sir, I wish to marry your daughter Susan."

"You do, eh? Are you in a position to support a family?"

"Oh, yes, sir!"

"Better be sure of it. There are ten of us."—Toledo Blade.

Unsatisfactory.

"What became of your ideas of simplified spelling?"

"I abandoned them," replied the universal reformer. "The result looked too much like a dialect story with the quotation marks left out."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Just a Way He Had.

"I suppose," growled the pessimist, "you believe in taking things as they come, don't you?"

"Only when I don't consider them worth going after," replied the optimist.—Chicago News.
